

Parkview Announcements for March 8, 2010

Kudos to Parkview's representatives for their outstanding success at Central Arkansas Regional Science Fair on Friday! Eight Patriots participated and we brought back eight awards, including a first place, second place, overall award, and several special category awards. Job well done!

Congratulations to the Parkview Wind Ensemble for their superior performance at Concert Assessment this Saturday. The Wind Ensemble scored Straight First Division ratings from all contest judges in both performance and sight-reading. The Symphonic band and Cadet band scored excellent ratings in their contest performances.

Parkview debaters successfully defended their state title at the Arkansas Mock Trial Championships at the Pulaski County Courthouse Saturday. In addition to prizes and trophies, the team won an all-expense paid trip to the National Championships in Philadelphia May 5th - 9th. Way to go Patriot Debate Team!

Attention All Student Council members AASC registration forms and $65 are due today, March 8 to Ms. Hampton.

There is a mandatory meeting for all candidates for the 2010-2011 school year on Thursday, March 11th during both lunches in room 2-107. Please, bring all campaign materials to this meeting. If you are not present, then your name will be removed from the ballot.

Want to take a class that puts you behind the scenes of all of Parkview's auditorium events? In Stage Craft you will learn and do stage lighting, sound, scenery, costume, makeup and more and it is open to students in any magnet area. To take this class, pick up an application from any Drama teacher or your counselor.

Washington University of St. Louis, MO will be visiting Parkview Thursday, March 11th. See Mrs. Murray in the Guidance Office if you are interested in visiting with the Washington University Representative.

T-shirt orders for this years' spring musical are due this Friday! Stop by any of the drama, dance or music teachers' rooms to pick up your order form. The shirts are only $10 and will be ready after spring break. Get yours today!

Unitown is a fun and meaningful experience that will allow you to work and play with a diverse group of Parkview students as we build a stronger student body. This year Unitown will be held March 29 and 30th. You must apply to attend or to be a counselor, fill out an application and return to Mrs. Rizzardi's box in the office by this Thursday, March 12. Applications are outside room 8-108.

The Art Institute of Dallas will be visiting Parkview Next week. See Mrs. Murray in the Guidance Office if you are interested in visiting with the Art Institute of Dallas Representative.

If you are at least 16 years old and would like to work a summer job you should stop by the guidance office to pick up a form to work for the City of Little Rock.

Do you enjoy filming? How about editing video? If you have ever wanted to be in front of the camera or work in television production here is an opportunity for you to learn more. Media and Promotions is a class open to all upcoming Juniors and Seniors from ANY magnet area. Pick up an application from the guidance office today! Space is limited.

Attention Seniors: The Melvin and Eugenia Lawson Scholarship applications must be returned to Ms. Watson in the guidance office by Friday, March 15th.

Best wishes to the Patriot softball team who will be playing against Fair on their turf. The game begins at 5:00 please go support our Pats!